Using An Atlas

1. What is the name of your atlas? (Hint: find the title page and look for the words in the largest type)

2. When was your atlas published? (Hint: look for the © symbol)

3. Where is the atlas found in the library? (Hint: look on the spine of the book and copy the numbers and letters)

4. Does your atlas have a Table of Contents? (Hint: sometimes it will just be called "Contents")

5. Flip through the pages of your atlas. Do you see a pattern on the top of the pages? What do the words printed on the top corners of each page tell you?

6. Find the index in the back of the book. What is the difference between the Table of Contents and the Index?

7. Find a map of France. Write two cities and two rivers below.

8. What was the fastest way to find the map of France in your atlas?
